Set Gas Permit Hearings For June 23

Fish And Game To Release 200 Pheasants Soon

The Fish and Game Association held their monthly meeting June 10 in the Library room. Due to the heavy rain the attendance was not as large as usual but an interesting program of films and other items was presented. A film from the Dept. of Fisheries in the Lac la Biche and Owl River area in which some of the local residents were featured was very much enjoyed.

Other films on Wild Life were also shown. Discussions centered around the 200 pheasants which will be released in this district on an experimental basis the end of this month. The possibility of placing trout fingerlings in some of the lakes in this area was also discussed.

These meetings of the Fish and Game Association which are held once a month are open to ladies and children as well as the men and are well worth attending.

A clay pigeon shoot will be held June 25 at 3 p.m. at the Gold Course. Very attractive prizes will be awarded. Hot dogs will be sold on the grounds.

FUA Sponsors Joint Meeting

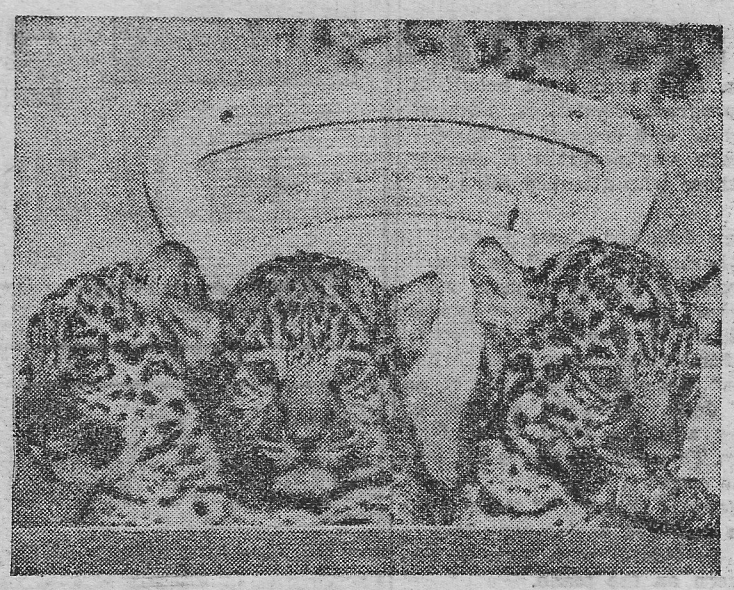
PLAMONDON — A joint political meeting, sponsored by the Farmers' Union of Alberta, was held in Plamondon recently. About 200 persons attended the meeting and contributed to its success.

Speakers at the meeting were Michael Maccagno, Liberal MLA, E. J. Woynarowich, Social Credit candidate, and Henry Thompson, Progressive Conservative candidate.

All three candidates gave interesting addresses and the questions from the floor brought informative speeches.

Other interesting and successful meetings have been held at Grassland, with about 150 people present and in Craigend, attended by some 80 persons.

All three meetings were conducted by Romeo Piquette, sub-director for sub-district 6.



EDMONTON CHILDREN would be thrilled if the new zoo being built by the city were to contain three baby jaguars. These cute little "kittens" weigh 850 grams—1.8 pounds—at the Frankfurt, West Germany, zoo. The Edmonton children's zoo is expected to open around the beginning of July.

METERS MAY BE ANSWER

TOWN COUNCIL CONCERNED OVER WATER WASTE BY RATEPAYERS

At last week's meeting of Town Council grave concern was expressed over the enormous waste of water by town residents. The town foreman reported that the pumps are required to operate around 24 hours per day to keep a reserve on hand, and there have been days when a safe reserve could not be maintained.

In commenting on the seriousness of the situation, Mayor Hamar said, It may be that the only solution is to install water meters so that there may be a control of unnecessary use of water."

In supporting the contention that water is being wasted, figures were produced showing the per capita consumption of water in a number of other Alberta towns. The average consumption per capita in six towns in central Alberta, according to reliable reports, proved to be slightly higher than 42 gallons per person per day. In the absence of meters in Lac la Biche, the daily consumption was arrived at by reckoning the capacity of the pumps in use, and the hours of operation during the average day. Working on this basis the per capita consumption of the town is conservatively placed at 90 gallons, or well over double that of six average Alberta towns. The nearest figure to this was a town in north eastern Alberta where consumption is reported as 65 gallons per capita.

Only two years ago the town's pumping and filter system was enlarged at a cost of over $6,000, those in charge are greatly concerned lest another more costly overhauling may soon be necessary.

Achievement Day Held At Plamondon

PLAMONDON — A successful 4-H Clothing Club Achievement Day was held in the Plamondon Auditorium.

The program consisted of plays, songs, demonstrations and displays prepared by the club girls, helped by their Club leaders: Mrs. Antoinette Schaub and Mrs. Maurice Leboef, leaders of the South Sewing Sisies Club; Mrs. Richard Labonte and Mrs. George Plamondon, leaders of the North Star Stitchers Club.

The judging of the fine projects took place at 5:30 p.m. The judges were two outsiders, Miss Maxim Ray and the district home economist, Miss Edith Witney.

During the evening's entertainment, speeches were given by two of the guests, Miss Witney and Miss Ray, and also by Mrs. Richard Labonte, who spoke on the work accomplished during the year.

After the entertainment a lunch was served by the 4-H girls. A reasonably - large crowd, mostly ladies, attended.

Board In Frenzy Over Spelling Town's Name La Instead of la

At a recent meeting of Lac La Biche Town Council a letter was read from the Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs revealing the fact that the Canadian Board of Geographical Names would prefer that the name of the Town be spelled Lac la Biche, rather than Lac La Biche. The difference being that the word, "la," is spelled with a small "l" instead of a capital.

The Post Office records show the name to be spelled with a small "l", while in the Order in Council proclaiming Lac La Biche as a Town in 1951, the capital "L" is used.

The Canadian Board of Geographical Names points out that Lac la Biche is the correct French form and any change would affect points such as Lac La Biche Mission. In the opinion of the Board the incorporation of the Town under the name of Lac La Biche was incorrect both technically and grammatically. It is recognized, however that local usage does support the spelling of Lac La Biche with a capital "L".

Town Council felt that the changes required by using the small "l" would cause more difficulty and confusion than to continue to use the capital "L". The capital has increased in use until practically all signs, letter heads etc. are now spelled that way. It would appear that unless further pressure is brought to bear on the subject, "la" will continue to be "La".

Maxine Kinsman Feted At Shower

LAC LA BICHE—Miss Maxine Kinsman, bride-elect of July 3, was honored Wednesday at a miscellaneous shower given by fellow members of the Lac la Biche teaching staff and held at the home of Mrs. Marshall Hamar.

Miss Alva Franchuk and Miss Vienna Stefanyk assisted in opening the gifts. Miss Kinsman is the fiancee of Mr. Mike Franchuk.

Application From Lac la Biche Is Third Received By Conservation Board

Hearings of three applications for a permit to construct and operate a natural gas pipeline that will serve residents of the town of Lac la Biche will be heard in the Edmonton Court House on June 23.

The town's application was the third received by the Alberta Oil and Gas Conservation Board. The other applicants are Northland Utilities Limited and Prairie Utility Management Ltd.

In May, the proprietary electors of the town gave council the green light to proceed with plans for the town to own its own gas distribution system. Of 276 possible voters, 104 voted in favor, 34 against, and three spoiled ballots.

Northland Utilities is the operator of an electric generating plant at Lac la Biche and Prairie Utility Management is a consulting firm that was contracted by the town to make economic studies of the feasibility of gas deliveries.

Northland Utilities officials say that within 10 days after making a contract with the town council of Lac la Biche, it would start work on transmission and distribution lines for the supply of natural gas to town residents.

It has also been stated that as soon as the electric utility can operate on natural gas, the price of electric power to consumers will be reduced by a substantial margin.

Under government regulations Northland Utilities can supply gas to more than just town residents, whereas the town itself in operating the utility would be limited to serving customers within the boundaries of the town.

Lac la Biche

Ernie Sheyka, Edmonton, is a guest at the home of his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hackman.

Miss Lucilie Tatum, who has been stationed at Rocky Mountain House with the DOT for several months, has now been transferred to the Edmonton office and took up duties there June 3. She spent several days at her home here prior to her transfer.

Joyce Mahowicz and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kanzig and family, Roy Kanzig, May Heatherington, Philip Kanzig and Sharon Ballard were among those who enjoyed a pleasant day at Island Lake recently.

Miss Beverly Ramsey, Vancouver, is expected to arrive this week by plane to spend three weeks holiday at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Badry. Miss Ramsey is nurse-in-training at the General Hospital, Vancouver.

Harry Lobay recently returned from an intensive two week course in gas fitting at the Canadian Vocational Training School, Calgary.

All Wet - Dried Later

BAYVIEW BAY — What might have been a serious mishap occurred on the bay when a speed-boat capsized early last Sunday. The two occupants, Harold Hrynyk, owner of the boat, and Emelien Menard experienced the "feel" of the cold water.

There was no fatality but a useful lesson was learned.

Election Decides Wheelbarrow Ride

A Herald reporter has learned that someone is assured of a ride in a wheel barrow down Nanton Street after the election is over.

According to usually reliable sources, Erny Coutney will push Nick Chodin all the way from the Imperial Bank corner to the NAR depot and back in a wheel barrow to be supplied by Roy Raines, if Maccagno is not elected. If Woynarowich is not elected Nick Chodin will push said Erny Coutney over the said route in the said manner. According to the informant, the performance is scheduled for Friday, June 19 at 1:00 p.m. sharp. In the event Henry Thompson, PC candidate wins, the event will be called off.

Oliver Agents See Newest Machinery

HYLO — Mike Poholski, Alex Zalewsky attended the "1959 Oliver Parade", a machinery demonstration in Edmonton, with George Homeniuk, the Oliver Dealer at Lac la Biche.

Altogether six carloads of dealers from this area enjoyed the free trip and seeing the up-to-date machinery which will keep these men discussing it for many a long evening. A very pleasant time was had by all.

Good health should not be a luxury, and it might not be if adults see that children receive proper training and treatment.

Hylo HSA Holds Final Meeting; Makes Plans For Next Season

HYLO — The Hylo HSA held their laset meeting of this school term on Thursday, June 11, with a very nice attendance, including the children. Mr. and Mrs. Shanks of Lac la Biche were our guests for the evening. Mr. Shanks is the president of the Lac la Biche HSA.

It was regretted that no one volunteered to go as a delegate to the Annual Convention in Edmonton and no literature about the convention was received as yet.

There was no report from any of the committees. Mr. M. Zalewsky, local school trustee, informed the members that shelves in our library will be looked after when the teacherage at Caslan is completed.

The School Board was asked to arrange to move the wood pile and also to inquire if it is possible to acquire more land adjacent to the school yard so the children have more room to play.

After a lengthy discussion it was moved that the HSA gets the posts and volleyball net and erect it on the school ground so that this sport would be available to the community.

If there is anyone interested to go to the "Recreation Leadership School" at Red Deer, commencing July 6 to August 1 and take such training, please contact the Executive.

This is the only course at the activity level which offers certification, candidates learn how to lead numerous recreational activities — ranging from community singing and quick crafts to team sports and dance. Successful candidates receive an interim leader's certificate which can be made permanent by returning for a further four weeks the following year. This school is fully residental and candidates over 17 years of age may attend if they are sponsored by a local organization. If any one wishes to go the fee of $20.00 will be paid by the HSA and the additional cost is borne by the Provincial Government.

It was decided that we sell doughnuts and coffee at cost price at our next HSA meeting which will be in September. Mrs. J. Rayment, Mrs. M. Grandish and Mrs. N. Zalewsky volunteered to look after the lunch at that time.

Mrs. M. Grandish, on behalf of the program committee, thanked everyone who assisted in anyway to make our program a success and those who attended the meetings.

Then followed three films — 1. "Brotherhood of Man" in which the various races of man were depicted and how they formed the basis of mankind; the other two films "Democracy and Ballot Boxes" were both very timely as they dealt with the subject of voting and the right to think freely. They showed life in a democratic country.

After the showing of these films there followed a sing-song led by Mrs. O. Meardi with Mrs. C. McEachern on the piano.

QUALITY EGGS

For high quality, collect eggs at least three and preferably four times daily. Use wire baskets to collect and cool the eggs. They will cool almost twice as fast in a wire basket as in a solid pail.

Hold eggs in a cool, moist place. A temperature of 50 to 55 degrees and a relative humidity of 75 to 80 per cent is ideal. Most basements come fairly close to this. Market your eggs at least once and preferably twice a week. The sooner your eggs get to the grading station the better the grade should be.

Feed, is probably the most important factor affecting the quality of the eggs. Variations in quality of the feed will produce variations in the quality of the egg. Feed a complete and balanced ration, and keep fresh feed in the hoppers. Always have a fresh, clean supply of drinking water available for the birds and clean out the water containers daily.

Sanitation is the utmost importance. Provide sufficient nesting space with plenty of clean nesting material and keep the layers confined to the laying house at all times. The laying house must be clean and well ventilated and the litter kept clean and dry.

THE GALL BLADDER

One of the most potent contributions to a pleasant disposition and its natural concomitant—a pleasing personality, is a healthy gall bladder. The number of people with sour faces and dispositions due to a diseased gall bladder is said by authorities to be substantial.

The liver manufactures bile, and is constantly pouring it into the small intestine. Since it is required in the intestine only when food is present, and is wasted at other times, Nature has a method of storing it so that it may be available when required.

The storage compartment is the gall bladder. As the bile enters the intestine it backs up a side channel into the gall bladder, where it is stored and released in the quantities required. The intelligent distribution of bile is due to the action of certain muscles which are controlled by the nerves.

So long as these nerves are free to carry their controlling impulses all is well with the gall bladder. It has no alternative but to function properly. But, if the vertebra of the spine becomes misaligned as the result of a shock or jar, it may cause pressure on the nerves supplying this vital area. The result is improper function of the gall bladder, with effects such as gallstones, inflammation, indigestion and a sour disposition.

If you would prevent such ailments and maintain a pleasant sunny disposition, see your Chiropractor and make sure that all your nerves are able to do their work properly.

Foresty Car Visits Hylo; Many Attend Lectures And Pictures

by Mrs. N. Zalewsky.

HYLO—For the fourth consecutive year Hylo residents have enjoyed seeing a number of interesting films in the Conservation Car, a national service by the Canadian Forestry Association. Their program includes school lectures and booklets, motor and railway car tours. Also junior forest wardens; street car, bus and forest fire posters; prairie tree planting; press, radio, TV; movie and magazine publicity, on Canada's renewable Natural Resources.

This year we had the pleasure of seeing a film about fishing in our own area, that is, Lac la Biche and Cold Lake regions. Even some fishermen looked familar.

FOREST FIRES

Now that many people will be enjoying camping it is well to remember that on the average forest fires burn over 2,000,000 acres every year and these devasting blazes are over 85% human-caused, and therefore unnecessary.

Here are a few pointers—

1. Don't use fire in the woods in dry summer seasons.
2. In all camping or hunting be "Extra Sure" that "Every Ember" is OUT including cigarettes. Smoke only when seated.
3. Use water on campfire and plenty of it before you leave.
4. Make camp fires on rock or sand, near water.

Fire, wind and livestock can damage woodlots greatly. Plowing fireguards where the wood lot or plantation adjoins a grassy roadway, railway or field is a good precaution to prevent fires starting or spreading. Also making clear roadways through woodlots make it easier to get equipment in position to fight the blaze and often stop ground fires running in the woods.

Wind cannot be controlled like fire but steps can be taken to minimize the damage it causes.

1. Keep a dense border about 50 feet wide on the sides of the woodlot most exposed to the wind.
2. Cut out decayed, split or partly uprooted trees to prevent wind damage.
3. Do not cut more than 40% of the volume of your tree stand.
4. Thinning young stands as required thus training trees to become resistant to wind.

LIVESTOCK DAMAGE

Livestock damage woodlots by eating, breaking and trampling young trees, damaging roots of large trees, destroying the ground cover of ferns and shrubs and packing the spongy humus layer causing increased water run-off. Little new growth is left to replace the trees nearing maturity. Research has shown one acre of good clover pasture gives livestock as much food value as 40 or 50 acres of woodlot pasture. Thus, both trees and livestock will produce better, when livestock is kept in the pasture.

SHELTER BELTS

Trees in woodlots and shelter belts increase farm income as well as beautify the farm. Their value in soil and water conservation is widely recognized. They provide homes for our feathered friends and furry animals. On non-agricultural soil timber should always remain as a woodlot. Wood products in excess of home requirements can usually be sold for fuel wood, pulp-wood, sawlogs, veneer, lumber, posts, poles etc. So woodlots and shelterbelts make the farm more productive and a better place to live, both now and for future generations.

There may be as many as 70 thousand bees in one hive.

Lac la Biche

Father St. Armand, former priest here, is spending some time in the district renewing acquaintances.

Mrs. James Campbell attended a meeting at Beaverlodge last week. She reports that the meeting was well attended by persons from all parts of the diocese. On the return trip Mrs. Campbell stopped at Fairview for a visit with the Rev. and Mrs. Green. Mrs. Campbell arrived by bus at Athabasca and was driven home by Mrs. Gibbons, wife of the Anglican minister of Athabasca.

Archie Joncas, accompanied by an old friend of army days Tommy Neal, left Edmonton by plane for Portland, Ore., to spend a couple of weeks holiday at the Neal home.

Henry Bandura Weds Evelyn Breau In Ceremony At St. Catherine's

LAC LA BICHE — White gladioli and blue bows decorated the altar and marked the guest pews of St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Church, June 6, when Miss Evelyn Joyce Breau exchanged marriage vows with Mr. Henry Eugene Bandura of Vegreville.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Breau of Lac la Biche and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bandura of Vegreville.

Father Leverte performed the double-ring ceremony.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride was radiant in a graceful full-length gown of lace and net over taffeta. The very bouffant skirt, poised over crinoline, featured tiers of lace ruffles and appliques of lace and sequins. The finger-tip veil of illusion was held in place by a crown of net and seed pearls. Her jewelry was a three-piece set of crystal, three strand necklace, bracelet and earrings, gift of the groom. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, lilies-of-the valley and ivy.

Mrs. Leonard Booth, Edmonton, sister of the groom was matron of honor and Miss Lynn Breau, sister of the bride, and Miss Cecile Rudiger both of Lac la Biche were bridesmaids. Mrs. Booth chose a cocktail-length gown of mauve organza, featuring a wide sash with a big bow at the back. Her slippers matched her gown. Her flowered hat and gloves were white and her bouquet was yellow daisy mums.

Miss Breau and Miss Rudiger wore similarly-styled gowns of organza over taffeta in shades of acqua and soft pink respectively, with slippers to match and ruffled mohair crownless hats in the same shades. Miss Breau carried pink daisy mums and Miss Rudiger's were pale blue.

Little 5 year old Marie Maccagno, daughter of the MLA, was flower girl. She wore a short white organdie frock with pink sash and a pink bandeau in her hair. She carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Ben Bandura of Edmonton and Mr. Barry Breau, brother of the bride, Lac la Biche.

Ushers were Mr. Leonard Booth, Edmonton, and Mr. Alisson Toronchuk, Vegreville.

Nuptial High Mass was celebrated. St. Basil Mass was sung in four parts by the St. Catherine's Choir, directed by Mrs. Robert Joncas who sang Shubert's Ave Maria, accompanied on the organ by Miss Yvonne Langevin.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party posed for their photographs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Badry. The professional photographer also took numerous pictures of the ceremony and highlights of the occasion throughout the day.

A reception for 265 guests was held in the Memorial Hall. To receive her guests, the bride's mother chose a 2-piece ensemble of powder blue lace with matching flower hat and beige accessories. Her corsage was pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. A. Benoit of Edmonton, grandmother of the bride, assisted in receiving the guests. Her costume was a two-piece ensemble in dusty rose, with navy accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Bandura, the groom's mother, chose a beige brocade gown with white accessories and a yellow rose corsage.

The bride's table, laid in white was centered by a four-tiered wedding cake flanked by tall pink and white tapers.

At the luncheon, convened by Mrs. Marion Bouvier, grace was said by Father Leverte. Mr. Mike Maccagno, MLA, was toastmaster, and proposed the toast to the bride. The best man, Mr. Ben Bandura, proposed the toast to the groom. Many telegrams were read by Mr. Maccagno from various points across Canada.

During the luncheon Miss Lynn Breau entertained with two piano selections, Chopin's "Nocturne" and an Overture. Later, Mrs. Robert Joncas presided at the piano and assisted by Mrs. Lucille Lange, Leo Gargus and Victor Strembiski, supplied music for the dancing.

In late afternoon, the wedding party, accompanied by a number of friends from Lac la Biche, motored to Vegreville for a supper in the Legion Hall. More than 175 friends gathered to shower the happy couple with best wishes and many beautiful gifts.

Master of ceremonies was Dr. N. J. Kusyk, Vegreville. Dancing was enjoyed till midnight, with music by the Vegreville Troubadours. Gifts and cash donations were then presented, followed by refreshments.

Sunday morning the bridal party attended Mass at St. Martin's church, Vegreville, following which a dinner for 40 relatives and close friends was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bandura. At this time the many lovely gifts were opened and admired.

Later the happy couple left by car on a wedding trip to Vancouver, Victoria and down the west coast as far as San Francisco. The bride chose for her going away costume an aqua sheath dress with matching duster and a beige lace and flower hat and accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Bandura will reside in Vegreville where the bride is on the nursing staff of the Vegreville Hospital and the groom is an eletrical engineer for Canadian Utilities in Vegreville.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and receptions included: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bandura, parents of the groom, Vegreville; Mr. and Mrs. E. Gouin, Vancouver, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dixon, Mrs. Jack Bennett, Miss Clare Dandurand, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brisson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Shevigny, Mr. and Mrs. Len Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mercer, Mrs. Gordon Kennedy, Mr. Mike LaBrier, Mr. and Mrs. Al Duranchuk, all of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Cockfin, Hobbema.

The composition of most cigarets today is said to be about 55 per cent flue-cured tobacco, 36 per cent burley, and the rest Maryland and imported tobacco.
